

Market Riddles

Directions: Circle the correct produce by following the clues given.

It is red. It has small, seed-like objects on its surface called achenes. Its stem has green petals.

It is round. It has tough outer skin. It is orange.

It has a core. It can be red, green or yellow. It is used to make cider.

It is small. It is round. It has one seed at its core.

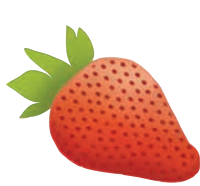

It is long and slender. It is yellow when ripe. You peel its skin to eat it.

Market Riddles 2

Directions: Circle the correct produce by following the clues given.

It is not big. It is not perfectly round. It does not have a smooth surface.

It is not round. It is not red. It is not very juicy.

It is not small. It is not orange. It does not have only 1 seed.

It is not red. It is not elongated. It does not have a core.

It is not orange. It does not have seeds on its surface.
It does not have a tough outer skin.

